CITY OF BANGOR.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, April 13, 1838.

WHEREAS the Legislature has made it the duty of the City of Bangor to provide and keep in repair School Houses for the several School districts within its limits, and has transferred all power to raise money for those purposes from said districts to the city , and whereas the several school districts with the exception of district No. 2, hold their real and personal estate in their own names Therefore

Resolved, That the real and personal estate of said school districts ought to be transferred to, and become the property of the city

Resolved That it is improper and inexpedient to raise monies for erecting, repairing, removing or purchasing school houses or utensils for said district until said districts respectively have in a proper and legal manner transferred to the city all their right title and interest in and to all real and personal estate now belonging to said school districts

Read and passed, and ordered to be published in the papers that do the advertising for the city; sent down for concurrence

PROSPECTUS OF THE BOSTON MUSICAL GAZETTE.

This Journal will be devoted especially to the subject of Music, containing the Musical History, Biographical Sketches of eminent Composers and performers impartial Reviews of Musical Works, an account of Oratorios, Concerts, Musical Societies, Academies and Schools with their various merits, progress, &c. Also, occasional hints and observations on the kindred arts, and matters of taste and general literature, with appropriate Poetical effusions. Each number will likewise contain more or less sacred or secular music, arranged with appropriate accompaniments

The inhabitants of New England may well be denominated a musical people And it is thought that a periodical of the above description if well conducted would meet with at least a competent support It is agreed on all hands, we believe, that attention to the art of music was never so great in our country as at the present day , yet we shall not pretend that science or taste keeps pace with the practice.

A writer in a respectable Journal ... ved "Our City takes the lead of all others in the Union, both in devotion to Music, and in the Institutions for its perpetuation and improvement" If this be an acknowledged truth, we deem it a circumstance no little favorable to our design.

It is well known that in Boston Music engages a special attention of both the old and young ; and it has been thought proper to introduce ... a ... ble branch of education, into some of our public schools as well as many private seminaries. Certainly, then there is a reasonable expectation that our plan may succeed, and a belief that it could not have commenced more opportunely

The editorial department will be conducted by B. Brown, Esq. who has the pleasure to state that the following among other talented gentlemen, will occasionally contribute to its pages ; Lowell Mason, G J. Webb, T Comer, N Mitchell, T. ... T Power, J. R. Parker.

The work will be published ... day, in the quarto form, of 8 pages ... on good type and paper ... annum, payable in advance.

DR. BRANDRETH'S GENUINE PILLS

Doctor Sangrado ...

Lives in the world to kill to kill!

THIS system does indeed live still, and is practised by the very men who laugh at Doctor Sangrado as a visionary fool. The immaculate Faculty!! Let this truth be impressed upon every mind that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid, stagnant and corrupt humors IN THE BODY by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take Brandreth's Pills, concocted forth
From the pure products of the earth;
They own no after sad alloy,
They often save, but ne'er destroy!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER,

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood," Leviticus, chapter xvii, vs 11. When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated, bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases, for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body, by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could possibly have done, and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation; whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also. How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary, what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine; the body is indeed lightened of a load. Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which 84 years have proved never to do injury, but always good. Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down. Is it too low? the same means will increase it to a proper standard. Is it tremulous, showing nervous excitement? the Pills, by soothing the system will allay it.

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr. B. who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year; and whose constitutions, in consequence, were becoming weaker and weaker, but who, since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood. When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened, they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation. Those sensible people, simply by the use of these invaluable Pills, are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind, which, by the practice of bleeding, were both becoming dreadfully impaired.

The following cases of cure, by the use of Brandreth's Pills, alone, are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston public:

ASTHMA CURED. The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich, Ct., deserves, by all persons, a careful perusal. The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills, which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine.

This is to certify that Thomas S. Brown of Greenwich, Ct., was taken with a cold, numb feeling, on the 13th of June last. He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty-four hours about two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated. Three physicians in Stamford, Greenwich, and Sawpits, pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma, and after prescribing for some time to no effect, the three consulted together, and finally declared that they could do him no good; it would and must result in consumption, and death would ensue, and that in a very short time. The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation. He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and finally gave himself up to death. After being in this miserable state nearly two months, he saw an advertisement of Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and immediately sent by Capt. J, Waring of Greenwich, for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days, which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction, is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge, in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable.

Signed. Greenwich, 23d Feb. 1836,

James R. Mead, Daniel S. Betts, John H. Reynold, A. Palmer, Rev. R. Palmer, J. R. Palmer, H. Brewsley, S. Jessup. James Moore. Hannah Hitchcock, J. Mean, Thos Bertram, Isaac Olmstead, P. V. T. Jessup, Stephen Waring, John Limbry.

Certificate of John Goulden, who has known the above pills forty years:

I hereby certify, that I have known Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill for upwards of forty years they were used by my family connections, in the county of Dorset, England, since the year 1796, many of whom they cured of old standing complaints. JOSEPH GOULDEN.

Bridgeport, Feb. 18, 1836.

Certificate of cure of CHOLICS, FITS, &c. &c. From a BOSTONIAN, whose address is at the foot.
[TRUE COPY.]

To Dr. Benj. Brandreth:

My dear Sir. I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT. I was subject to a great coldness through my whole system, attended with frequent pain and severe cholics; for the year, I have also been subject to fits, which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child. I am ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence, No. 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire.

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I labored have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain,
Very respectfully,
JOHN LUMMUS.

HEALTH, PROFIT AND CONVENIENCE.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Bangor and vicinity that he has purchased of Mr H. Evans the right of using O. Badger's Feather Renovator in the County of Penobscot and is now prosecuting said business at Wingate's building near E. M. Square in Bangor, where he will be pleased to receive and execute all orders in his line with strict fidelity and dispatch. He would invite the attention of the public anew to examine more particularly the merits of the new operation by which both old and new Feathers are so decidedly improved; by being freed from every impurity, animal, and every other, and swelled to their full size, and made as elastic and lively as when first taken from the fowl. It has been suggested that it would be highly proper that beds which have been used by sick persons should undergo the operation as a healthy process.

The subscriber is confident that when fully examined it will be found so decidedly useful comfortable as well as profitable by preserving property from decay and waste, that a discerning people will avail themselves of this opportunity and give a liberal patronage. Terms from the present date (Beds will be taken in the morning and returned in the afternoon if required) For dressing beds weighing 25 lbs. and under, $1; over 25 lbs 4 cents per lb. Ticks washed at 25 cents and the beds returned as soon as dry.

New Feathers Machined and put up at 3 cts. per pound. WM. DAUGHERTY.

Bangor, Oct. 1837.

The following Certificates, to which many more might be added, are permitted to be published.

This certifies that the undersigned have had their Feathers renovated in the above Machine and feel free in recommending it to others as a valuable improvement and worthy of patronage.

PELEG CHANDLER,	S. HYDE.
LANE & SANDFORD,	S A. LAMSON,
IRA D. GLOVER,	HENRY WARREN,
CHARLES C. CAGE,	B. D. BARTLETT.

Having seen the above-named Feather Renovator in operation, I think it a valuable acquisition in restoring old feathers to their original state new Feathers are much improved by the operation, and it is hereby recommended to those who wish to test its trial. A. D. LOWELL.

A CARD.

The subscriber most respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that at the earnest solicitations of the proprietors, he has assumed the charge of the HAMPDEN HOUSE, Conscious of the difficult task to please all, he nevertheless flatters himself he will be able to give general satisfaction by strict personal attention to the wants and wishes of those who may patronize the establishment. His Bar will be constantly supplied with choice Liquors, and his Larder with the best the market affords.

The spacious Hall connected with the house is in fine order. Ball and Parties can be accommodated, and Music of the first talent provided (if required) at the shortest notice, and at reasonable charges; and while he shall always be happy to wait upon company from the city, he will endeavor at the same time to render the house what in fact it should be, the resting place of the weary traveller and the stranger's home. In short he will not only endeavor to sustain, but to improve the reputation of the Hampden House, relying at all times upon the liberality of a generous public for that patronage which it will always be his aim to merit.

CITY OF BANGOR.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight.

AN ORDINANCE to establish a High School for Girls in the city of Bangor.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bangor in Common Council assembled That there be and hereby is established in said city, a High School for the education of Girls in which shall be taught by a Master, Classical Literature, the Sciences usually taught in Academies, and such other studies as may from time to time be designated by the City Council or Superintending School Committee. And said School shall be open for the admission of all girls whose parents, masters or guardians reside within the limits of the city and who shall be found qualified according to the rules which may from time to time be established regulating such admission.

SEC 2. Be it further ordained, That said High School shall be under the care and direction of the Superintending School Committee of said city, who shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to establish rules and regulations respecting the age and qualifications requisite for admission to said High School, the studies to be therein taught, the government thereof, and such other rules and regulations as will in their opinion promote the objects of the Institution. But such rules and regulations shall at all times be subject to revision, alterations, or repeal by the City Council.

CITY OF BANGOR.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, April 13 1838.

WHEREAS the Legislature has made it the duty of the City of Bangor to provide and keep in repair School Houses for the several school districts within its limits and has transferred all power to raise money for these purposes from said districts to the city, and whereas the several school districts with the exception of district No 2, hold their real and personal estate in their own names. Therefore

Resolved. That the real and personal estate of said school districts ought to be transferred to and become the property of the city.

Resolved. That it is improper and inexpedient to raise monies for erecting, repairing, removing or purchasing school houses or utensils for said districts until said districts respectively have in a proper and legal manner transferred to the city all their right title and interest in and to all real and personal estate now belonging to said school districts.

Read and passed and ordered to be published in the papers that do the advertising for the city, sent down for concurrence.

PROSPECTUS OF THE BOSTON MUSICAL GAZETTE.

This Journal will be devoted especially to the subject of Music containing the Musical History, Biographical Sketches of eminent Composers and performers, impartial Reviews of Musical Works, an account of Oratorios, Concerts, Musical Societies, Academies and Schools, with their various merits, progress, &c. Also occasional hints and observations on the kindred arts and matters of taste and general literature with appropriate Poetical effusions. Each number will likewise contain more or less sacred or secular music arranged with appropriate accompaniments.

The inhabitants of New England may well be denominated a musical people. And it is thought that a periodical of the above description if well conducted would meet with at least a competent support. It is agreed on all hands, we believe, that attention to the art of music was never so great in our country as at the present day; yet we shall not pretend that science or taste keeps pace with the practice.

A writer in a respectable Journal recently observed "Our City takes the lead of all others in the Union, both in devotion to Music and in the institutions for its perpetuation and improvement." If this be an acknowledged truth, we deem it a circumstance no little favorable to our design [illegible]

It is well known that in Boston Music engages special attention of both the old and young, and it has been thought proper to introduce it [illegible] ble branch of education into some of our [illegible] schools as well as many private seminaries [illegible] ly, then there is a reasonable expectation [illegible] plan may succeed, and a belief that it [illegible] have commenced more opportunely.

MORE VICTORIES IN NEW YORK.

TROY. The Whigs have succeeded by a majority of SEVEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY NINE they carried every Ward in the city. Every officer is a Whig.

CATSKILL. The Whig Ticket succeeded by a majority of one hundred and ten.

DELHI. The entire Whig ticket was elected by a handsome majority.

SING SING. For a long time the head quarters of Loco Focoism in Westchester. The entire ticket chosen by a handsome majority.

To the Editors of the Whig & Courier.

The last Democrat informs the citizens, and people generally, as it has done for several weeks past, of the state of the money market and the prospects for business. It represents the money market as improving very decidedly and that the prospects for buiness are good. What particular means of information that paper has, upon which to make such statements, I know not, unless it is from the petty system of brokerage which the managers of that paper carry on. Those who now have a little money, have good times; their prospects for business in their line were never better; and probably they would be much alarmed at any change in the money market that would have the least tendency to disturb the present rate of interest, or effect seriously their business prospects. And, sir, I am inclined to think their prospects for the business they are in, never was better. The people are now truly in the "jaws of usurers"; and I think they are destined for a while to remain there; how long they will remain depends wholly on themselves. The Democrat wholly misrepresents the facts. It cannot be ignorance of them; and it must be a wilful misstatement. The people, who can have but little confidence in its boasted attachment to democracy, must have far less in its attachment to truth. Almost every business man knows there has not been a time for twenty years when all kinds of business has been so prostrated, as at the present. The distress is limited to no class; the laboring man and the merchant, the mechanic, and the farmer alike feel the influence of a disordered state of the finances, and a deranged currency, and the people now begin to look around for the authors of this individual and national ruin. A few years ago the National Treasury was overflowing, now it is bankrupt; all classes of enterprising and industrious citizens were moving forward rapidly in the road of prosperity to independence.

But the last few years have brought a mighty change over us; the best monetary system in this or any other country has been destroyed; a National Bank, in full and successful operation, has been prostrated; the foreign and domestic exchanges have been broken up; and a train of evils have followed, which all feel, and few have the hardihood to deny. The present administration have the power, in six months time to give relief, and bring back the country to the prosperous condition in which it was five years ago, if it would exercise it. But Mr. Van Buren and his advisers have chosen to suspend the power of Congress over the currency granted by the constitution, and divorce the government from all connection with the banking institutions in the country, and try one experiment after another, rather than return to the old and well tried system, under which the country flourished. The people have taken courage and are fast breaking the chains of their oppressors. "The ball still rolls," and there is now every reason to believe that the present dynasty at Washington must soon have an inglorious retirement assigned it. The mercantile part of the country want no better or cheaper system of exchanges, nor a sounder currency than was established in 1816 by Messrs Madison, Dallas, Gallatin, Crawford, Clay, and Calhoun, and which lasted twenty years and was destroyed by Gen. Jackson and Van Buren. It would take a deal of Loco Foco logic to convince the people that they can do business better without a National Bank than with one. When, in fact, out of the fifty years we have lived under the federal constitution, we have had a Bank forty; and during that forty years, all classes of people were prosperous, and the condition of the country was good and healthy in business matters. And on the other hand, during the few years of interval that we have been without a Bank, all has been derangement and distress in financial affairs. Look at the country from 1787 to 1791, and from 1811 to 1816, when there was no National bank, and what has been the condition of the people? They had general derangement, suspensions, failures, and an inundation of uncurrent Bank bills and shin plasters.

Petition of Davis Wasgatt, for permission to expend the amount of his taxes on the road to his farm, came down referred to Committee on Streets and Highways. Read and concurred.

Ordered that the joint standing Committee on City property be instructed to cause the Pound near Zadok Davis' dwelling house, to be repaired. Sent up for concurrence.

Report of Nathaniel Colomy for side walk, came down giving the petitioner leave to withdraw. Read and concurred.

Resolve authorising a loan of 50,000 dollars for the purpose of erecting a city Market House, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent for a term of not more that six years not exceeding five and a half per cent for a term of not more than ten years and not exceeding five per cent for a term of not more than twenty-five years, no loan to be made at any rate for a less period that three years, came down finally passed. Read and finally passed.

Resolve authorising a loan of $25,000 for the purpose of paving gutters, making permanent improvements in the city payment of part of the city debt and for other purposes, on a term not exceeding ten years nor less than five years, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent, came down finally passed. Read and finally passed.

Report of the Superintending School Committee came down. Read, and report ordered to be placed on file in concurrence.

Communication of William Emerson relating to Broad Street, came down. Read and referred to Committee on Streets and Highways.

Ordered that the Treasurer be instructed to report a statement of the accounts and debts outstanding against the city, and of debts due the city, and of all monies received since the present municipal year. Read and sent up for concurrence.

Order appointing a special Committee to enquire into the expediency of ornamenting the burial ground at Mt. Hope with forest trees, came down passed. Read, non-concurred and sent up.

Order came down, allowing B. F. Adams $100 whenever he shall give a conveyance to the city of the side walk on State Street. Read and passed in concurrence.

A BANKRUPT TREASURY.

It will be perceived on reference to our Congressional proceedings, that Mr. Wright of the Senate, has been constrained to admit, that the Government is at this moment insolvent. The Naval Appropriation Bill from the House, cannot be taken up in the Senate, for want of funds, and there is not money enough left for the ordinary purposes of the Government. This is a melancholy commentary on the wisdom of the present Administration.

Gen. Jackson arrogated to himself the credit of having paid off the national debt. This sounds well enough as a naked proposition. But when we consider that the course of measures recommended by the same General Jackson, has already created a public debt of twenty millions, for the first year, under his successor, and that the public Treasury is still empty, it "shows something rotten in the state." Let the people ponder on these astounding developements.

It has been rumored, for some days, at Washington, that the President was about to transmit a special message, declaring that there was no more money in the Treasury, and asking Congress for relief. Probably Mr. Wright's declaration is intended as a harbinger to some message of this kind. If so, let us have it, that the people may know the worst. Half way declarations are not what the people want. They have a right to demand the whole state of the case. If the administration has been prodigal let them frankly own it, and the people will the more readily come to their relief. Concealment is the worst of all expedients. [Centinel.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES. The following is an ancient Democratic prophecy, made at the time in the history of the United States, when it meant something to be called a Democrat.

"The time will come when some popular and designing man, holding the sword of the Presidential office, will seize the public Treasure, and when he thus unites in his own hands the sword and purse, farewell to our Liberties; and this will be the rock on which our Republic will founder, unless it be sedulously guarded against."

The rapid strides that were made during the administration of General Jackson towards the fulfilment of the above prophecy, gave just cause of alarm to the American People.

But when they heard his successor, Mr. Van Buren, declare that "he should tread in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor" when they saw him carrying out his bold schemes of establishing a TREASURY BANK and receivers general when they saw his mad project of a metallic currency for the office holders and his heartless abandonment of the people to take care of themselves when they saw him grasping after universal and uncontrolled dominion over all the moneied concerns of the country, no wonder that they were alarmed, and justly alarmed. And, now in order to deceive the people and quiet that alarm, see his hypocritical professions of friendship for their interests and for the Banking Institutions of the country while he and his partizans are sure to defeat every measure that is brought forward by the friends of the people and country for their relief. But the people have taken warning from the alarm that has been sounded by their faithful sentinels, and are coming to the rescue. The questions now at issue between the officeholders and the people are, whether the sword and purse shall be united or not—whether there shall be a treasury Bank receiving nothing but gold and silver for debts to pay the office-holders, leaving worthless rags for the people—whether a national debt of from 50 to 100 millions of dollars for interest paying Treasury notes as a circulating medium, is to be created for the people or not; these are the issues to be tried at the ballot box [illegible] the Electors can [illegible] [N. Y. Daily Whig.

RETURN OF THE CAPTIVE.

Our citizens, yesterday morning, were introduced to the acquaintance of John Wood, a man whose tale of sorrow could not fail of interesting the heart, however callous, or however prone to incredulity. A meagre sketch can only be given now. The ample history of his misfortunes may hereafter be presented to the world, and, if given by a master hand, will command the interest, and enlist the sympathy of the public, when the mawkish productions of fiction, which now cumber our bookstores and insult our taste, shall become despised and forgotten.

In the war of 1812, John Wood, now fifty years old, was a young and industrious farmer in Bracken county, Kentucky. He was the husband of a young and interesting woman and the father of two infant children. He was living in happiness on a farm which he had earned by his industry, when the gallant Captain Butler (who afterward fell at the capture of the British batteries at Fort Meigs) raised his flag, and solicited the hardy Kentuckians of Bracken county to enroll themselves among the defenders of their country. John Wood was one of the number. He suffered all the privations to which the army of the northwest was exposed, during the disastrous campaign which resulted in the defeat of Winchester at the river Raisin. By good fortune he escaped the tomahawk of the savage allies of Great Britain, and was sent a prisoner of war to Quebec.

He was next, with the other American prisoners, despatched in a transport to Plymouth, in England. From Plymouth, accompanied by a crowd of fellow prisoners, he was about to be transferred to Dartmoor, when he found an opportunity to elude his guards and make his escape. He wandered through the country, stealing through byways, until he found himself at Bristol. Hunger compelled him to enter a grocery, the head quarters of a press gang. Here he was pressed, and despite his protestations that he was a citizen of the United States, and fugitive prisoner of war, facts which might have been easily proved by reference to the military authorities at Plymouth, he was hurried on board His Majesty's frigate Sea Horse, then the flag ship of the celebrated Sir Peter Parker, and compelled to bear arms against his countrymen.

On board the Sea Horse were several other Americans, who like Wood, had fallen victims to the British system of impressment. They determined on desertion; and when lying in the port of St. Johns, they succeeded in securing a boat, in an extremely dark night, and attempted to reach the eastern coast of the State of Maine. They were instantly pursued, and were obliged to desert their boat on the shore of New Brunswick, and seek safety in the woods. After wandering about for two days, exhausted with cold and hunger and fatigue, they were apprehended by a party of British soldiers and again transferred to the Sea Horse. The punishment that follow'd this act of desertion, was inflicted with all that ingenious refinement of cruelty for which the British navy is so celebrated.

The Sea Horse, attached to the squadron under Admiral Cockburn, was shortly afterward ordered into the Chesapeake, and took an active part in the robbing, burning and murdering of the defenceless inhabitants of the coast. Mr Wood and the impressed Americans were never permitted to leave their vessel. He was on board on the night when Sir Peter Parker met his fate on shore. A few days subsequent to this event, he, in company with seven other impressed Americans, attempted an escape in broad day light by boldly jumping into a boat along side, and pulling rapidly for the shore. One of the number was shot by the sentinel on duty. The others reached the beach, but were apprehended, immediately on landing, by a party of marauders belonging to the Sea Horse.

By order of Admirl Cockburn, they were sent in irons to Nova Scotia, where, after undergoing a trial they were sentenced to be shot. The sentence, however, was commuted to service for life, in his Britannic Majestie's army in the East Indies. They were accordingly shipped to England, and thence with a regiment of newly levied recruits, despatched to Calcutta. For 21 years Mr. Wood served as a private soldier in the East India service; 13 months since, when broken down in spirit and in constitution, he was permitted to sail for England. Destitute and heart broken, he reached London, stated his case to the United States Consul, and by him was furnished with the means of reaching New-York. He left New York in January, and wended his weary pilgrimage towards the home of his childhood.

It is now twenty six years since he left his wife and children—in Kentucky, and not one syllable has he heard, relative to their situation, since the moment of their separation. The citizens here, forced a few dollars upon him, for, poor and decripid as he is, he still possesses all the pride of a Kentuckian, and sent him on his way in the stage to Wellvill, from which town he intends to embark in a steamboat for Augusta, in Kentucky.

Fancy cannot help asking what is now that home to which the war-broken wanderer is returning? Will the wife of his youth be ready, in the fidelity of her early love, to hail the return of her long lost husband? Or will her duty and affection have been given to another? Or will she be reposing beneath the clods of the valley? And his children! If living, they must have long since entered upon the busy scenes of life. Will they take the weary pilgrim to their homes and to their bosoms? A thousand overpowering emotions must rush upon the old mans heart as his weary footsteps approach the spot that was home! Fancy cannot fill the picture. May He "who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," support the aged wanderer in that eventful moment, which is soon to witness, either the extremity of his happiness, or the utter desolation of his hopes.

Thomas Bradford, Esq., successor to Dr. Franklin, and the oldest Printer and Editor in the Union, died on Monday at Philadelphia, in the ninety-fourth year of his age.

The issue between the two great political parties of this country, was never at any period, more distinctly a question of honesty, than it is at this moment. [New Era]

An honest confession, Mr. Era, and if any one wishes to know which is which, we can furnish a list of 136 runaway Loco-Foco Sub-Treasurers, nearly as many Loco-Foco defaulters, and any quantity of Loco-Foco slanderers. An honest confession for a paper that wishes to Burke his honor, the Mayor. [N. Y. Daily Whig.]

A Van Buren man, writing from Virginia, says: "I believe of [a] truth, that the Whigs have got us on the hip, and that they will throw us. When Mr. Van Buren was put in I did not expect this but what can't be cured must be endured."

A man in Connecticut, speaking of his oxen, said that they were good any way, but they [illegible] could do, and he supposed the reason was because they could get so much better foothold.

BANK OF FORTY MILLIONS AT NEW-YORK. It has been rumored in Wall street for some days, that an association was forming, under the late act of the Legislature of New York, "authorising the business of Banking," with an immense capital, adequate to all the demands of the metropolis. The Commercial, of Wednesday evening, says: "Since the passage of the general bank law, our leading capitalists have been engaged in frequent and anxious consultations, with a view of constituting such a bank as New York wants and must have; and we have the pleasure of assuring the public that the preliminaries have been so far adjusted, that the work will go on. We shall have a bank of forty or fifty millions a bank that that will take the lead of the Union and which, in the absence of a National Bank, will be the next engine of currency to such an institution."

HENRY CLAY. A large meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia in favor of the election of HENRY CLAY to the Presidency of the United States, was held last week in that city. The number of persons present is estimated in the Philadelphia papers at 5000. The meeting was held in the State House yard. The Hon. Joseph R. Ingersoll was appointed Chairman. Several gentlemen addressed the meeting and some very excellent resolutions were adopted in relation to the present state of the country, and to the claims of Mr Clay to the Presidency.

CURIOUS CHALLENGE. An Irish gentleman offers the following singular challenge to any gentleman of the sister kingdom. He proposes, that he, on his part should go into any market-town of Meath on a fair, without notice beforehand, and there select one hundred Irishmen, natives of that country, and that the Englishmen on his part should go into a market town in any part of England, also without notice, and choose two hundred Englishmen—that the parties so selected should meet on the Curragh of Kildare, on a day to be fixed, in August next, without weapons of any kind, and that they should make the following trial of strength and skill. That the two parties be drawn up in lines opposite each other, at a distance of 21 yards, that they close at a signal; that no blow shall be given, and the challenger undertakes for one thousand pounds or upwards, that the hundred Irishmen will throw the two hundred Englishmen on the ground, each man once thrown to be removed, and not to be allowed to take further part in the contest. [Dublin paper.

THE PLAYER ON THE HEART.

BY HORATIO HALE.

"Neither are there any heartes so utterlie evil and depraved, that a cunninge seeker will not find therein many goode and lovelie affections; even as a master, from a poor and broken instrument, doth draw forthe much sweete music." SIR THOMAS BROWN.

I cannot wake the breathing flute,
The lyre and harp are dumb to me;
I cannot touch the lover's lute,
Nor rouse its speaking melody.
Mute, mute for me the lofty roll
That fair Cecilia taught to swell;
But there's a sympathy of soul,
And I can wake it passing well.
The merest child in Orphean art
Can better strike the Doric quill;
But I can play upon the heart,
And touch its chords with magic skill.

A truant boy his task forsook,
And loitered in the vale adown;
I found him idle by the brook,
And warned him of his father's frown.
Oh, clouded was his laughing eye
He sat him down and wept the while;
I bent to cheer the sobbing boy,
And whispered of his mother's smile:
And lo! the sudden clouds depart,
And lightly bounds he from the rill;
For I can play upon the heart,
And touch its chords with magic skill.

A soldier slept, in stillness hushed
I broke his dreams, and whispered "Fame!"
Forth to the battle-field he rushed,
To write in blood a deathless name.
An infant, on its mother's breast,
He sought to slay in fury wild;
The madman's arm a word repressed
A single name his own dear child!
It woke his spirit's gentler part,
And Mercy spake the storm was still;
For I can play upon the heart,
And touch its chords with magic skill.

A dying man, with failing breath,
Abode his hour. I entered in,
And held before the eye of death
The long account of crime and sin.
Wild grew the eye, in dark despair,
And paler waxed that pallid cheek;
I taught him then, with fervent prayer,
A Saviour's pardoning love to seek.
O, welcome now the deadly dart
The Christian soul it could not kill;
So I can play upon the heart,
And touch its chords with magic skill.

I wooed a maiden in her bower,
And lowly knelt, and proffered gold;
"Oh, wealth may purchase pomp and power
A faithful heart can ne'er be sold."
I knelt me at her feet again,
And pleaded love, and only love;
The heart that scorned a gilded chain,
Affection's lightest breath could move.
I saw the pitying tear drop start
I felt her bosom's panting thrill:
Oh, I can play upon the heart,
And its chords with magic skill.

FRANKFORT BANK.

THE public are hereby informed that we have ceased to redeem the bills of the Frankfort Bank at the Suffolk Bank and shall hereafter redeem them either in specie, or in current bills of other Banks, at our own counter. In dissolving this connexion with the association of Banks, in Boston a system of redemption in its effects highly injurious and inconvenient to the public, and fraught with danger and hazard in the transmission of funds from the counters of our own Banks the only proper and safe place of resumption. It is proper that the public should know the precise and correct amount of our bills now in circulation. That amount is but $10,128, and the immediate funds of the Bank are amply sufficient to meet promptly all its circulation and individual deposites and we have no hesitation in saying that the Stockholders in this Bank are equal, at least, in point of individual responsibility and permanent safety, to those of any other Banking institution in the State.

Bills of all the Banks in Maine that have discontinued the Suffolk arrangement, and promptly redeem their bills at their own counters when presented either in specie or current bills of other Banks, will be received at par at this Bank either on deposit or in payment for dues to this Bank

Doctor Sangrado's system still
Lives in the world, to kill, to kill!

THIS system does indeed live still, and is practised by the very men who laugh at Doctor Sangrado as a visionary fool. The immaculate Faculty!! Let this truth be impressed upon every mind that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid, stagnant and corrupt humors IN THE BODY by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take

Brandreth's Pills, concocted forth
From the pure products of the earth;
They own no after sad alloy,
They often save, but ne'er destroy!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER,

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood," Leviticus, chapter xvii, v. 11. When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated, bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases, for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body, by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could possibly have done, and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation; whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also. How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary, what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine; the body is indeed lightened of a load. Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which 84 years have proved never to do injury, but always good. Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down. Is it too low? the same means will increase it to a proper standard. Is it tremulous, showing nervous excitement? the Pills, by soothing the system will allay it.

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr. B. who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year; and whose constitutions in consequence were becoming weaker and weaker, but who, since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood. When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened, they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation. Those sensible people, simply by the use of these invaluable Pills, are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind, which, by the practice of bleeding, were both becoming dreadfully impaired.

The following cases of cure, by the use of Brandreth's Pills, alone, are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston public:

ASTHMA CURED. The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich, Ct., deserves, by all persons, a careful perusal. The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills, which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine.

This is to certify that Thomas S. Brown of Greenwich, Ct., was taken with a cold, numb feeling, on the 13th of June last. He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty-four hours about two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated. Three physicians in Stamford, Greenwich, and Sawpits, pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma, and after prescribing for some time to no effect, the three consulted together, and finally declared that they could do him no good; it would and must result in consumption, and death would ensue, and that in a very short time. The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation. He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and finally gave himself up to death. After being in this miserable state nearly two months, he saw an advertisement of Dr. Brandreth's vegetable Universal Pills, and immediately sent by Capt. J. Waring of Greenwich, for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days, which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction, is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge, in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable.

Signed, Greenwich, 22d Feb. 1836,

James R. Meas, Daniel S. Betts, John H. Reynold, A. Palmer, Rev. R. Palmer, J. R. Palmer, H. Brewsley, S. Jessup, James Moore, Hannah Hitchcock, J Mean, Thos Bertram, Isaac Olmstead, P. V. T. Jessup, Stephen Waring, John Limbry.

Certificate of John Goulden, who has known the above pills forty years:

I hereby certify, that I have known Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill for upwards of forty years they were used by my family connections, in the county of Dorset, England, since the year 1796, many of whom they cured of old standing complaints. JOSEPH GOULDEN.

Bridgeport, Feb. 18, 1836.

Certificate of cure of CHOLICS, FITS, &c. &c. From a BOSTONIAN, whose address is at the foot.

[TRUE COPY.]

To Dr. Benj. Brandreth:

My dear Sir, I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT. I was subject to a great coldness through my whole system, attended with frequent pain and severe cholics; for the year, I have also been subject to fits, which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child. I am ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence, No. 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire.

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I labored have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain,
Very respectfully,
JOHN LUMMUS,
Boston 17 Sudbury street.

HEALTH, PROFIT AND CONVENIENCE.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Bangor and vicinity that he has purchased of Mr H. Evans the right of using O. Badger's Feather Renovator in the County of Penobscot and is now prosecuting said business at Wingate's building near E. M. Square in Bangor, where he will be pleased to receive and execute all orders in his line with strict fidelity and dispatch. He would invite the attention of the public anew to examine more particularly the merits of the new operation by which both old and new Feathers are so decidedly improved; by being freed from every impurity, animal, and every other, and swelled to their full size, and made as elastic and lively as when first taken from the fowl. It has been suggested that it would be highly proper that beds which have been used by sick persons should undergo the operation as a healthy process.

The subscriber is confident that when fully examined it will be found so decidedly useful comfortable as well as profitable, by preserving property from decay and waste, that a discerning people will avail themselves of this opportunity and give a liberal patronage. Terms from the present date (Beds will be taken in the morning and returned in the afternoon if required)--For dressing beds weighing 25 lbs. and under, $1; over 25 lbs 4 cents per lb. Ticks washed at 25 cents and the beds returned as soon as dry.

New Feathers Machined and put up at 3 cts. per pound. WM. DAUGHERTY.

Bangor, Oct 1837.

The following Certificates, to which many more might be added, are permitted to be published.

This certifies that the undersigned have had their Feathers renovated in the above Machine and feel free in recommending it to others as a valuable improvement and worthy of patronage.

WILLIAM MANN	JOSEPH KENDRICK,
PELEG CHANDLER,	S. HYDE,
LANE & SANDFORD,	S. A. LAMSON,
IRA D. GLOVER,	HENRY WARREN,
CHARLES C. GAGE,	B. D. BARTLETT.

Having seen the above-named Feather Renovator in operation, I think it a valuable acquisition in restoring old feathers to their original state new Feathers are much improved by the operation, and it is hereby recommended to those who wish to test its trial. A. D. LOWELL.

A CARD.

The subscriber most respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that at the earnest solicitations of the proprietors, he has assumed the charge of the HAMPDEN HOUSE, Conscious of the difficult task to please all, he nevertheless flatters himself he will be able to give general satisfaction by strict personal attention to the wants and wishes of those who may patronize the establishment. His Bar will be constantly supplied with choice Liquors, and his Larder with the best the market affords.

The spacious Hall connected with the house is in fine order. Ball and Parties can be accommodated, and Music of the first talent provided (if required) at [illegible], and at reasonable charges; and while he shall always be happy to wait upon company from the city, he will endeavor at the same time to render the house what in fact it should be, the resting place of the weary traveller and the stranger's home. In short he will not only endeavor to sustain, but to improve the reputation of the Hampden House, relying at all times upon the liberality of a generous public for that patronage which it will always be his aim to merit.
